This directory provides information on establishments specializing in the below categories in these counties:

Berks County	Delaware County	Philadelphia County
Bucks County	Lancaster County	Schuylkill County
Chester County	Montgomery County	York County

FOOD

Food/cuisine is remarkably diverse and influenced by cultural heritage. Just as food/cuisine consist of ingredients, diversity, culture, and tradition are a few of the ingredients of humanity.

HAIR/SKIN CARE

Hair, skin, and nails go beyond the surface; they vary and represent an individual's diverse and unique culture and background.

RELIGION – TEMPLES/CHURCHES

Religion and culture are entwined; religion influences culture. Religion is more than what church you go to, or what religion you practice. Different cultures, races and ethnicities united in their beliefs and faith is at the root of bringing families, groups and communities together to share religious or faith based experiences and opportunities for learning.

TRADITIONS & CELEBRATIONS

Traditions and celebrations are reflective of culture, ethnicity, heritage, and family. They represent key aspects of what makes culture and ethnicity unique, and holding celebrations allows culture and traditions to be experienced all across the world, which provides an opportunity for learning, conversation and new experiences.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

The progression of arts and entertainment over the years reflects the integration of numerous races, cultures and ethnicities. Music, movies, books and other art forms are multigenerational and cross cultural, and are able to be accessed by everyone across the world. The love of the arts and music and the diversity reflected in this genre has been a powerful force in bringing people together.

TRADITIONS & CELEBRATIONS

Every May, the Mexican Cultural Center presents a slew of celebrations for Semana Mexicana, or Mexican Week. Previous year's festivities have included a flag-raising ceremony at City Hall, special exhibitions, Mexican Restaurant Week and performances. Stay tuned to the official site for more details

Odunde Festival — the country's largest African American street festival — returns for its 45th year of celebrations. A week of cultural events concludes with the namesake festival that covers 15 blocks of Graduate Hospital. With the epicenter at 23rd and South streets, the festival promises hip-hop dance performances, live music, food inspired by the flavors of the African diaspora and shopping.

The weekend-long Hispanic Fiesta welcomes crowds of more than 15,000 people each year for a festival complete with traditional performances, authentic food, a cultural marketplace and fun music, all celebrating the people and culture from several Latin American countries.

Philadelphia's Caribbean Festival transports guests to the tropical islands through a slew of special events like musical performances, dancing, food and a marketplace of Caribbean-inspired goods. The event is free to attend.

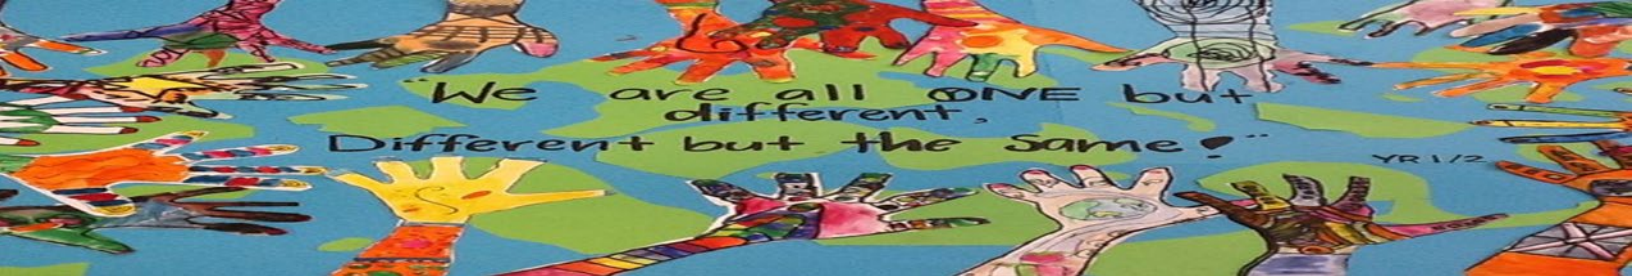

More than 5,000 people come out annually to watch the Puerto Rican Festival and Parade, in which 1,500 people march along the Benjamin Franklin Parkway in an exciting outdoor street party. The celebration of Puerto Rican culture promises traditional music, dance performances, poetry readings and lots of island pride

As the largest East Coast film festival dedicated to spotlighting the experiences of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, the Philadelphia Asian American Film Festival returns from November 5 to 15 with enticing film screenings all around town. The event showcases a variety of films — documentaries, feature-length, animated and more — that were created by Asian filmmakers or for the Asian community.

Join Us

Welcome to GRACE! We are so glad you're on our website and we hope to meet you soon. One of the distinct things about our church is that we're an all-generations community. There's a place for you here, and we look forward to seeing you soon.

Our Sunday worship services last about an hour. People will be wearing everything from shorts to suits so come in whatever is comfortable for you. During service, you will hear our worship band (in our modern service) and our choir (in our classic service) lead worship. You will experience moments of reflection and prayer, and you will be challenged with a message based on God's word that applies to your life

TRADITIONS & CELEBRATIONS

Bendición- most Puerto Rican children (and even adults) greet their parents & elders with “Bendición” (English translation: blessing). It is a way for a child to request a blessing. The response from the adult is usually, “Dios te bendiga” (English translation: God bless you)

Parranda- A parranda (English translation: party) is a Puerto Rican music tradition that takes place in Puerto Rico during the Christmas holiday season. A parranda is when a small group of friends gathers together to "asaltar" or surprise another friend. It's the Puerto Rican version of Christmas caroling. Most parranderos play some sort of instrument, either guitarras, tamboriles, güiro maracas, or palitos. And they all sing. Take a look at this video, it's a wonderful time of year!! <https://youtu.be/8VPOrUhU52c>

Quinceañera tradition is the coming of age of a young girl: 15th birthday. This event includes food, music, and in most, a choreographed dance by the Quinceañera and her Court (group of chosen friends that participate as the Court of Honor). The Quinceañera is both a religious and a social event that emphasizes the importance of family and society in the life of a young woman. It is celebrated in Mexico, Latin America, and the Caribbean, as well as in Latino communities.
